 12.1

Thankyou for the opportunity to speak tonight. The residents of Hay Road left the council meeting on the 23rd February with the firm belief that the designated blocks in Hay Road would be rezoned to R40. Although not fully supportive of this option, at least it was palatable.

Can you imagine our disbelief when we read the current Amendment, that Council had backflipped to a zoning of R60.

When Councillors are considering the application, I would like them to consider the following points:

- Schedule of Submissions - Second Advertising Period. Many submissions seem to have been lodged by family members.

- 56 Hay Road 3 submissions

- 58 Hay Road 4 submissions

It should also be noted by councillors that many don't even reside in Belmont.

- A number of submissions state that "Modification from R60 to R40 will reduce the over viability of the project".

This boils down to the developer not making sufficient profit with an R40 zoning. It seems to be their intention to build as many units as possible to maximise returns.

- The Applicant CLE Town Planning + Design has lodged a submission

- Councillors should be aware that there is a significant cost to bring the sewerage down Hay Road, and this is what is driving the required R60 zoning. Several submissions state that existing residents knew of DA9 prior to building, however conversely the owners of 56 and 58 Hay Road were aware that there was no sewerage connected to their properties.

- Submissions state that land owners prepared the scheme amendment at a substantial cost, in consultation with the City including a briefing to Council. They were more than surprised at the R40 recommendation. One submission even states that they were guaranteed an R60 zoning. The first that existing residents knew of this proposed development was late 2020.

- Council appears to have had substantial input into this planning submission prior to the first advertising period.

- Why has a complete section has been added to the amendment titled Local Structure Plan and Administrative Changes.

- Finally, I feel that the residents of Tibbradden Estate should have received written notification of this amendment as they will be impacted by the increased traffic in the area and people "rat running" through their streets to access Great Eastern Highway

Thankyou for your time.
