6 Ordinary Council Meeting Agenda for meeting to be held on 28 March 2023

6.1 Agenda items for review

OCM Item 12.1

Submission on Proposed Metropolitan Region Scheme Amendment 1399/57 - Lots 185-196 Hay Road, Ascot

Deputation Presentation

Ms D Ransome spoke against the Officer Recommendation.

Officer Presentation

The Manager Planning Services provided a presentation which included the following:

- Location Plan
- MRS Map
- Proposed Amendment
- Coordination of Local and Region Scheme Amendments
- Swan and Canning River Development Control Area
- Site Contamination
- Environment
- Swan River Buffer - 50m
- Amendment Classification
- Officer Recommendation

(Refer Tabled Attachment 6.1.1 for further information).

Notes from Forum

- There would be a number of considerations impacted by the buffer zone, visual amenity and environmental impacts such as drainage and contours.
- The Swan and Canning River Development Control Area is administered through the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions which is the administration for the Swan River Trust.
- The Swan and Canning River Development Control Area includes various levels of control. If the Development Control Area were amended to align with the boundaries of the Metropolitan Regional Scheme (MRS) Parks and Recreation Reserve, development on lots abutting that boundary would need to be referred to the Swan River Trust. If the development lot was straddling the Swan River Trust Control Area then the next level of control comes in where it is to be determined by Western Australian Planning Commission. If it was wholly within the Swan River Development Control Area then it goes to the Swan River Trust. The logic is that if the land was zoned as Urban there should not be a need for it to also fall under the Development Control Area. Generally, where the City finds property straddling the Development Control Area is where those properties also straddle the MRS, Parks and Recreation Reserves.

- The Planning Regulations introduced development zones, under the City's Local Planning Scheme there is Residential Zone, Mixed Use Zone, Mixed Business Zone, but the City does not have a Development Zone. The Regulations that came into effect in 2015 introduced a new zone called Development, they also introduced a Centre Zone, what the City refers to as Commercial or Town Centres Zones.
- Mixed Zones are not Development Zones for the purposes of what the regulations state as standard zones. The regulations aim to establish standardisation across all local governments, so they are seeking local governments to amend or update their planning schemes so there is residential, mixed use and development zoning. The City's Scheme came in before the Regulations and amendment to the Scheme will be considered as part of the next review.

Officer Presentation

Notes from Forum

- Each case is judged on its merits depending on what the matter is, any actions required and how it can be resolved.
- There is an example that occurred last year which all Councillors were copied into the correspondence. The customer was advised that their behaviour was deemed unreasonable, and they were only restricted by who they could deal with at the City. There was no restriction on access to City services.

Further Information to be Provided

- The Acting Chief Executive Officer undertook to provide an amendment to the Officer Recommendation to include within the Policy that Councillors are provided with information about customers where unreasonable customer conduct has been determined and any penalties that have been applied.
