Mayor's Message

Welcome to the 2022 City of Belmont Art Awards.

The Art Awards are a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the creative talents of people in our local community, as well as in the wider arts community across Western Australia.

The City is proud to once again facilitate this important and highly anticipated cultural event, which has proven to be one of the highlights of our arts calendar.

Following the success of last year's Art Awards, this year's exhibition includes a record number of entrants, displayed in the City's renovated building The Glasshouse.

I am pleased to see the City of Belmont Art Awards continued support of artists and the presentation of artworks that stimulate the imagination, tell stories, and create experiences that can be shared with others.

The Art Awards support the City's Strategic Community Plan which encourages the community to engage in the arts, and develop new artwork that celebrates the local area.

The Awards also support the key outcomes outlined in the City's Community Placemaking Strategy, which aims to promote the City as a cultural destination and to celebrate the City as a place of creativity.

The City of Belmont aspires to be innovative,
creative and progressive,
and recognises that art
has the power to connect us together through social interaction contributing to the health, wellbeing and general life satisfaction of our residents.

The exhibition includes a wide range of traditional and contemporary media created by professional and emerging artists, as well as a number of talented students artworks entered by local schools.

I encourage you to take the opportunity to support our artists and appreciate the wealth of creative talent that can be found both locally and throughout Western Australia.

Thank you to our generous sponsors Belmont Forum, our media partner Perth Now, and our Education Partner Artsource for supporting this year's Art Awards.

Congratulations to all participating artists on your creativity and efforts in producing an outstanding variety of artwork for this year's exhibition.

Please enjoy the City of Belmont 2022 Art Awards.

Public Programs

This year the City of Belmont is working in partnership with Artsource, WA's peak body championing visual arts in the community, to deliver a range of educational and informative sessions in the lead up to and alongside the Belmont Art Award Exhibition. Workshop and lectures have been designed to provide professional development opportunities for emerging artists, as well as opportunities to participate in a range of creative pursuits.

The program will assist artists to develop their professional skillset for a successful entry to the City's Arts Awards and beyond. Workshops part of the program will cover industry topics such as how to prepare artwork for exhibition, marketing and pricing of works and navigating legal obligations.

Previous events held in 2022 include:

- Preparing Your Work for Exhibition with Dr Layli Rakhsha
- Introduction to Public Art for Artists with Sean Van der Poel
- Making a Living in the Arts: Marketing & Pricing with Dr Layli Rakhsha
- Copyright & Contracts for Artists with Michael Tucak
- Introduction to Sound Design with Tom Allum

Mentorship Program

The 2022 City of Belmont Art Awards includes a mentorship prize which has been facilitated through Artsource as part of the Education Program.

Artsource have selected Christophe Canato to be the mentor. Canato is a Perth based French/Australian artist working in photo media. He has exhibited his artworks internationally and provides professional photographic services to public and private institutions as well as corporate clients in visual arts, entertainment, events and fashion sectors.

From the self-nominated entrants of the 2022 Art Award, Christophe Canato will select an artist in which he will provide professional mentoring during October 2022.

The Judges

The City would like to thank the 2022 City of Belmont Art Award Judges:

Wendy Martin

Wendy Martin is Chief Executive Officer of the Community Arts Network (CAN) in Western Australia. CAN creates positive social change through the arts, building inclusion and understanding between people.

As Artistic Director of Perth Festival and Head of Performance and Dance at the Southbank Centre, London and the Sydney Opera House, for the past twenty years Wendy has worked with the world's leading artists, supported emerging careers and created and produced ground-breaking multi-artform festivals, commissions, events and public engagement programs.

Sue Starcken

Sue Starcken is an artist, writer, curator, and lecturer based in Perth, Western Australia, with extensive experience in community arts and exhibition development. Her work is held in numerous public and private collections locally and internationally and she has been published in several contexts including journal articles and catalogue essays.

Sue has a master's degree in Medieval and Early Modern Studies from the University of Western Australia, and a Bachelor of Arts with Honours Degree from Edith Cowan University, WAAPA and SOCA. She is currently the Art Collection Curator at Edith Cowan University, and she has exhibited and curated work in numerous group exhibitions at venues locally and internationally.
