

Advisory Group Expression of Interest

The City of Belmont's Advisory Groups provide an opportunity for community members and local stakeholders to actively contribute to the City of Belmont.

Members are a vital link between the City and the wider community and assist in providing ideas, advice and feedback on the implementation, monitoring and review of the City's strategies and contribute to the development and monitoring of programs and initiatives.

An overview of each of the City's Advisory Groups is outlined below. Rules for each of the groups are outlined in their respective Terms of Reference, available on the City's website.

To be considered as a City of Belmont Advisory Group Member, please read through the Terms of Reference and the Advisory Group Guidelines before completing and submitting this Expression of Interest to the City at community.development@belmont.wa.gov.au.

Advisory Groups meet a minimum of three times per year during business hours, with the opportunity to join Working Groups on areas of interest. Members' participation is voluntary.
