

Western Australia's 'I Need an Interpreter Card'

My first Language is _____

I also speak _____

English (Australian)

If you find it hard to communicate in English, this card will let government agencies know that you need an interpreter.

Cards are available at the City's Civic Centre front desk or at Ruth Faulkner Public Library.

How do I use the card:

- Write the name of the language you speak or use on the front of the card in English.
- If you speak or use more than one language, write the other languages on the card in the order of strongest to weakest.
- Ask the person who gave you the card to help you with this if necessary.
- If you need help from an interpreter when using a government service, show your card to a staff member.
- They will try to arrange for an interpreter (either in person or by telephone) who speaks your language.
- If an interpreter who speaks your first language is not available, the staff member will try to find an interpreter who speaks your second or third language.
