I'm dedicated to listening to the residents, improving public spaces, and prioritising safety. I am politically independent to better concentrate on local issues. I can bring fresh new energy to this council.

My background in computer engineering and experience as a small business owner have fuelled my passion for efficiency and effective problem-solving. I actively engage with community groups and volunteer whenever possible.

Having grown up in Belmont, I'm committed to connecting our community. I understand the challenges the cost of living crisis poses to our residents. Now more than ever, it's crucial that we listen to your concerns.

I am committed to increasing our tree canopy, reviewing environmental practices and making genuine efforts to reduce crime to ensure a better and safer community.

I'm eager to collaborate with fellow councillors to bring new passion and energy to our council, ensuring we serve you better and make progress towards a thriving, inclusive community.
